OTHER DETAILS: Michael Mangan is one of Australia's contemporary composers and music liturgists. He worked as a Music Specialist in Brisbane schools for 15 years and is a Music Director at All Saints Parish in Brisbane. Michael's music is widely used in schools and parishes throughout Australia and the world. He is regularly invited to lead liturgical music at major national and international Church and Catholic education conferences and he tours each year presenting school and parish concerts.

If the excursion organisation is varied or cancelled you will be notified and any appropriate refunds made. If a student cancels after final arrangements have been made, it may not be possible to refund money even if cancellation is due to illness.
